Wermont Watchman & State Vournal.

BY E. P. WALTON & SON.

MONTPELIER, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1851.

VOL. XLV, NO. 14 --- WHOLE NO. 2315.

Wolchman & State Journal.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

Doctry.

THE HEAVENLY SHEPHERD.

BY MEE, J. R. LOWELL.

- When up my mar your loss was inmited,
- And tender applicable apparets, A reside till from memory seedled
- Which note had e-allied my hitter thirst.
- Aut Constitute bearing on Thus it wight he a meeting deep
- To steal bosic flows from your grief. After the shill's appreciated breath Up to the Patter tink its way, due our times the shock of fresh
- Esks a long twinger innerting tay, And bloods came round with us to weep,
- Har little uptail's soft tentown, This story of the Atolic vicesp.
- They in the willoy's shellering care
- And what the and prove bronce and bare; The displant stress to make them disals To guy abelies of partner green, That have around the notatable's solv.
- And these is the length what a time sometimens while Duthinghouse complete time things
- The steep and organization try;
  Though subset the disposite with and stage
  And second below the passens for.
- THE ASSESSMENT THE LINE WAS ARREST Along the dilected property
- They believed no war and breaks,
- Married Street work than been book sough
- And slong and family regulars hoth. Hirs on the section Power world five, O'er force bronch, then the Bern residential
- Wants all as Hilps tours from, On the gard Philpseld on the enight,
- the eliming after the strong way, Walking the first factors where
- And the the nation of the entry Branch a tige were vising the need

LIFE IS ONWARD.

- Test is necessary edicine it; And its markles which

- Late is married short it.

ANGELS IN THE AIR.

I Suggrated by the remark of a little girl, who abserting the some disks a windy as obtained to the enter, "Gra, don't not thom, Story, there's any it in them."

- Bark, darker grows the feeding sky,
- Weater over tracen its weary way
- A finite shill inchild wentering on,

- The pain are still the which
- Throngs over to us an ire to theor;
- And slid but our said withored hearts We might sen angels everywhere.

The roof in vain the minted tempest feeling i

Thy board is boated with the richest ments, After which those eyes to eated berguer wander; Or feast on fragments which thy servants square

Many have scarce a rag about them cast. I'bon hast suit smiles to great thy kiss of love,

Thou sleepest soundly on the costly led, Luff'd by the power of locuries unnumber'd; Some pillow on a stone an aching head,

Naver again to wake when they have slumber'd.

They are his children, though in rage and tattors.

board. At all events, there was a distinct then she correspondly thrust her thinder to-day; and something seemed by prosess finger into the familiar brass, and noticed to the tailor's wife a brighter time, and a at the little man among the holly, as much all that, it was a whim that controlled him ings they purchased me, and then I pass to beyond his powers of self-argument, had he peace. Eve paid the penalty of my selfish-sharply. ness, and my unquiet ghost will cease to improved light. But pudding is not to be pretty sharply for the vanity and vexation of voice from the manie-piece. month. I am there on an in all for my Mrs. Arkins jumped round with the slore in four supportments; and in all four my test of pumps. She looked and saw a gen- likeness by lamenting friends is considered very perfect. In one place I am giving afew wisdom scratches made with an iron a Sunday; and now it's no walk, but forold see thes -about the corner of his eyes, in that monument! Well, I never !" ejac- he has just suffered. then had a conting-ward look; a look, more ulated Mrs. Athens. " And now I recol-of these countenances that, like a royal "Never mind reflections," cried the tairybody who can possess at. She had seen wards her visitor, "but come to the story a picture of the Poer Man's Priesd, and- a once. How did you get into my thins-of the rich, and the rights of the poor-al--buy where I might-I would buy cheap. er time than usual at his toilet. "It is an exceedingly fertile soil. The Every new shilling saved I considered a The wretched man was attired in a light immense undergrowth of shrub and vine 'Poor creatures!' cried Mrs. Atkins, 'ir Every new shilling saved I considered a must be a strait fodging, goodness knows. I have victory over the extravagance of trade. blue dress coat, with frosted bottoms, a interwoven around the giants of the forest, never heard of such a thing.'

" Shoulder of matten and potatoes !" exform; 'did you never hear of Solomon's claimed Mrs. Atkins, as though she spoke of conspicuous dimensions. of culmary marvels of Mahomet's Paradise. ' Never,' said the tailor's wife, with great " Well, to be sure we had a bit of beef moment a thousand brazen kettles at the bot- ed upon bran and water, if cheapness were tom of the sea; and in every kettle is a pris- in the stitches of my coat-if my heart, my pend upon it, to hear the sea moan and roar, coat that, for economy of cost, defied com-" More shame for you," said the tailor's

'Starvation!' auswered the mannikin, is worth the hearing-at this moment- thing for him; when he said he should like from what has been discovered. Of the tells a good many good stories under the there are the ghosts of not less than ten to have a glass of ale. Having drank this, thousand men and women-excellent per- he appeared to be satisfied. sons when alive; the very pink of goodness. The fatal moment new approaching, he with delicate white satin feelings, as one devoted the remaining portion of his time together $200,000,000 of gold from Africa. ing, and amongst other tilescrations gives together supported to distributing among his friends those lit.

I would speak of what is better than gold ing a young lady of some attractions and the departed Poor Man's Friend. And lemnity to the landlady. their prison is far worse than the brazen. The clock at length strack eleven, and ments are made by them of ore so pure that tive refusal, the match was broken off. Afdangeon in which Solomon shuts up his at the same moment he was informed that a when heated it becomes at once sufficiently ter a couple of years, the parties accidentgenii; for they, at least, are not mocked cab was at the door. He merely and " I with an open cell-with a promise of liber- am ready," and allowed houself to be con- any shape or form. They make knives, was quite willing to renew the engagement ty never, until the appointed time, us ducted to the vehicle, imo which he got bill-books, war cotlasses, spears, axes, hoes, -the lady appeared not to have the slightbe obtained. Now the victions of the phim- with his brother, his friends following on the out of this ore, without the process of est recollection of him. ble may not budge. They have completed behind in others. the cheapest thimble when alive, and the Arrived at the tragical spot, a short, but cheapest thimble is for a time their punish- anxious delay of some seconds took place; ment when dead. My time is up, and my after which they were joined by the bidy

Tom and I have worked for !-

' How, for the time, have you tor- ward agitation.

and my fate. Thus, for every stitch rou be thy wife?" To which the rash youth took, I felt your needle-head go clean into replied in a distinct voice, "I will." what seemed my flesh. And my sense of He then put the fatal ring on Miss Gale's feeling was sharpened into spiritual suffer- linger, the hymenial noose was adjusted, ing. For fourteen hours a day have I felt and the poor fellow was launched into mat-Atkins turned the plate that contained it round and round half-a-dozen times, and took half-a-dozen side-long looks at it, as though endeavoring to behold it in the most I can tell you. Mrs. Atkins, that I have paid of little daggers piercing me through and with every such a jerk than -incommitty felt-the punctures of the ramony. of little daggers piercing me through and Exploration of the interior of Africa. through, and with every stich a jork that seemed to snatch at every nerve.

' Mercy on us!' cried the tadler's wife, But we ask mercy in vain, who have no mercy on others. Live and let starve was my inner creed; it's a wicked religion, Mes. Atkins, and earnes its after punish-

From the London Parish.

THE LAST HOURS OF A SINGLE GENTLEMAN.

This morning, Nov. 11, at helf-past elevhearth. In the model of her terror, Mrs. good. And it may sound right enough up-Arkins thought of her little bit of heef and on the world's counter, but it wou's do, man, Mr. Edward Pinckney, underwent the quently obliged to perform in a day, we extreme penalty of infatuation, by explans never walked more than two hours or two every day married lady is the inventor of a "No," said the man, " it's all said, but ing his attachment to Mary Ann Gale, in and a half at one time, without coming to thing which few foreign nations have as yet thing which few foreign nations have as yet and the man, " it's all said, but I'm thinking it will be a long time before pen-the sort of pen made out of Time's ever stately. La, bless me ' and that's you became accessories to the course for which the gigantic trees of immense beight, which chamber.

for a certain time to be imprisoned in thim- the articles he would no longer want. To one he gave his eight case, to another his ore obtained by the natives of Africa imme- After a liberal arrangement had be 'In thimbles!' exclaimed the tailor's tobacco stopper, and he charged his brother diately in the vicinity of Liberia, which for the young lady, by her father, Mr. Mew-Henry with his latch key, with instructions | they describe as being abundant, that they line, having taken a particular finey to a lit-'In thimbles,' repeated the miniature of to deliver it after all was over, with due so- have no hirraces; they need none. All the brown mare, demanded that it should be wounds are healing-but how, for these ten with her friends. Little was said on either side, but Miss Gale, with customary decor-That's just about the time-not quite- um, shed rears. Punckney endeavoted to on and I have worked for - preserve decorum, but a sight twitching in be for my tailor that was,' said the man- his mouth and eyelsows proclaimed his in-

All necessary preliminaries having now 'I-I couldn't do it,' cried Mrs. Atkins, been settled, and the prescribed melancholy formalities gone through, the usual question 'You couldn't help it-'twas your duty was put-" Wilt thou have this woman to

From the Labour Advece

One of the missionaries to Liberia lately "Ay, mercy on us," said the hule man, made an exploring four of 253 miles on foot into the interior. He passed through thirty villages of the Goulas, Deys, Queaks, and Condoes. In his report he says

"Such a country as we passed through in that missionary tour, I have not seen surpassed in either of the fifteen west India Islands which I have visited, from Trinidad to Tortola and the Virgin Island. It is an elevated mountainous country. Ranges of And here the little man vanished, and Southwest-rise up before the dalighted ing like the bold, precipitous mountains of our Eastern States. Beautiful and extensive valleys he at the base of these mountains, which gently slope down to the level fragmentary paiding—but they were fost to her sight, modified up in one white cloud frag is. It won't do, ma'am."

After some number, the cloud cleared as were, showly redling itself up in the cloud cleared as and Mrs. Atkin's mass thumble lay, like as ten years ago since I deed. If you doubt not other two-pointy amplement, upon the not two-pointy amplement, upon the not two-pointy amplement, upon the many single property and an extraction of the parties who were at Jones' party at Brixton, two years ago, that Mr. Pinckney was there, and then first introduction of the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which intersect the African Canaan. And not very sweet words, a description would read like a catalogue, bearing the many smaller rivers which the alter rainage of the St. Paul's Chorach, Islands in the front of the alter rainage of the St. Paul's Chorach, Islands in the front of the alter rainage of the St. Paul's Chorach, Islands in the front of the alter rainage of the St. Paul's Chorach, Islands in the front of the alter rainage of the St. Paul's Chorach, Islands in the front of the ry nature, his single life would have come season, and yet we found pleaty of water induced to sanction his addresses, and thus lay in our return route, I was so struck with reared their towering heads and united their The unhappy man passed the last night fusurant foliage above in forming above us over, of self-satisfaction. He was very no lect what a fine lot of stuff there's writ at of his bachelor existence in his solitary one dense and rich canopy, that I called the attention of the colored ministers of the From half-past eight to ten he was en- Laberra Annual Methodist Conference who man, hastily, "even as I am, my check gaged in writing letters. Shortly after, his accompanied me, to this evidence of the younger brother, Henry, knockeed at the richness of the country which God had giv- the comfort which enriches the atmosphere, ed to State Prison, and sent off in two hours door, when the doomed youth told him to en to the Africans, and to which their excome in. On being asked when he meant iled brethren were invited by so many powface upon a shilling, is the property of eve- loa's wife, with decreasing deference to- to go to hed, he replied-" Not yet." The erful considerations. I measured several question was then put to him how he thought trees, and my journal, kept at the time with he would sleep ! to which he answered, "I scrupulous exactness, records 23, 24, 25 don't know." He then expressed his de-feet as the circumference of many of them size for a cigar and a glass of grog. His within ats feet of the ground. Let me rewondrously like the flesh-said-blood good- dreadful punishment," cried the little man. brother, who sat down and partook of the mark, that the variety and superior quality "Punishment !" echoed Mrs. Atkins .- like refreshments, now demanded if he of the wood found in these forests, and in-And the little gentleman, though some- "Well, to be sure, little as you are, it must would take anything more that mgia. He deed all along the borders and around the what uneasily, sat among a sprig of Christ- have cramped you terribly. And what's so fectionate brother then rose to take leave. Mount to Cape Palmas, or Maryland, canmas holly that was upon the mantel-piece; very drell, I never felt you."

sat and with his best pains, looked secure amid his bower of spikes.

'But I felt you—every stitch," said the manualin, and be seemed to wince at the 'Hado't you letter take a chair, sir, on recollection. 'However, to finish my stothis stool? said Mrs. Atkins, as she passed ry. You must know that, although I talked on the next morning, the victim of Copid white pine is used in America, up to the her apron over a three-legged piece of deal, to the last day of my life about the duties having been called, according to his desire, teak, a variety of mahogany, a beautiful he rose and promptly dressed himself. He species of hickory very abundant at Cape 'Thank you,' said the little man; his though now and then, for the look of the had the self-control to shave houself without Palmas, the iron wood, the brimstone, susface puckered as he spoke, and sinking un- thing, my name spirkled in a guinea subupon his chin appeared after the operation, ing beauty, and many others, an almost to live in thimbles are not allowed to be comsome such public benevolence, I would buy fortable.

It would seem that he had devoted a longcertime than usual at his toilet.

"It is an exceedingly fertile soil. The

The Forest Funeral. She was a fair child, with tresses of long asked her if she knew her condition.

" I know that my Redeemer liveth," said she in a voice whose molody was like the But few have both the will and the means sweet strains of the Edian. A half hour for deeds of high benevolence, hence none ame deep, rich, melodious voice :

and the old man lay down beside his dying by the sounding trumpet, had its empty and child, and she twined her thin arms around short-lived mass for their only blazon his neck, and marmured in a dreamy voice :

eyes closed—she slept in the arms of Je- ven Railroad, whose speech, smacking of the French or German accent, subjects him

Sabbath evening came, and a slow pro- to an occasional quiz from the passengers, cession wound through the forest to the was wished "A Happy New Year" by one school-house. There with simple rites the of them, during the trip on New Year's clergrams performed his duty and went to the grave. The processors was abort.—
There were hardy men and rough, in shootwas April fool, Fours July, and all ze rest," was his rough. ing pickets, and some with rules on their was his reply, to their countenances, as they stood in mur- meaning of donation? You have been pre-the nearest place to heaven on earth; and ple, and they carry the cake to the miniswith old Sir Thomas Brown I love to see a ter's, and the people go there and cat it." church in a grave-yard, for even as we pass through the place of graves to the temple of Once upon a time, on a Sunday after-

THE EVERY-DAY MARKIED LADY.—The to the first man be metand therefore ungratefully; it is a thing of made up my mind to sit down contented course-a necessary, a right, of the want of wathout it. which he complains without being distinct. A rank Vanston or run Bann. The ly sensible of its presence. Even when it Governor of Texas, in his proclamation for sequires sufficient intensity to arrest his at-tention, when his features and his heart from the Bible, which may be new to some, all comes from. His every-day wife is safeing quietly in the corner; it was not be who lighted the fire, or dressed the dinner, or drew the curtains; and it never occurs to him to think that all these, and a hondred other circumstances of the moment, A Frenchman came into B-one day, owe their virine to her spiriting; and that stole a watch, was arrested, tried, condemnwhich sparkles in the embers, which broods and a half. When he reached the top of the in the shadowy parts of the room, which hill whence the whole village could be seen,

Power or a Kinn Worn .- A man was avair I did see !" one day driving a cart along the street - If the tich would not prepare thorus for The horse was drawing a heavy lead, and the pillows, and forge chains for the hands did not turn as the man wished him. The and minds of their children, they should man was in an ill temper and beat the teach them, early, the rudiments of indushorse; the horse reared and plunged, but try. he either did not, or would not go on in the Symparny. An Irish esunsel being right way. Another man who was in the questioned by a judge to know "for whom cart, went up to the horse, and patted him whom he was concerned," replied—"I am on the neck, and called him kindly by his name. The horse turned his head, and fixed his large eyes on the man, as though he would say, "I will do anything far you, be-lest this end master you; lest your motives sink as your condition improves; lest you serves it. fall victims to the miserable passion of vying | Without contentment there is no joy of with those around you in show, luxury and aught, there is no profit, no pleasure in any-CHANNING.

gold coast your Committee says right, when head of "Dealings with the Dead." One hey assert that . England has received al- of these numbers he devotes to fortune-hunt--iron. And such is the purity of the iron something of a fortune into the bargain .their rude agricultural and warlike instru- thrown into the bargain; and upon a posimaileable to admit of being wrought into ally met, at a country ball. Mr. Mewins > Surely you have not forgotten me !" said he.

"Mewins," he replied. "I had the hon-

The miscarriages of a good man, which My child?" said the man, "doth the give an ill-natured pleasure to little minds, suggest to every great mind the most melanchely ideas of the weakness of human masure in general, but no spiteful senomous 44 An angel smiles! But I am cold, cold, reflection agriculins weakness in particucold? Patter, there is a mist in the room? har. Far from exulting over his fallenworth, he views his downfall with a generous pity, and, warned by it, works out his murs, and the birds sang, and so we buried paring all the week for the donation party, her! and I want to know what it means." I saw the sun go down from the same spot, "Why, Junuy," said Johnny, "don't and the stars were bright before I left, for I you know what donation means? I do! do always had an idea that the grave-yard was means the cake, and nation means the peocongregation were coming out, and he said "What! is it all done?"

it moves occurs to him to imprire where it of the Bible; "The winter of our discon-In the beautiful and expressive language glows in his own full heart, emanates from he stopped, turned about, and gazing at it her, and encircles her like an aureola. for a moment, at last exclaimed : "Vell, dis is de smartest lectie place for business, zat cause you are kind to me;" and, bending pleasant, as bearing and speaking the rroth.

CEITO.

is in danger of abandoning himself to a des- Working miracles with worsted-such as get wealth if you can by honorable means, hons, with sapplare colored tails, is one of and it do not cost you too much. A true the modern accomplishments of young la-

A man cannot run away from himself .-

The Chinese have an axiom, and a beaua month he will not be able to recognize tiful truism it is, too, that when one person

A Winter Sermon.

The limbs are mailled from the piercing blast,

Miscellancous.

in the morning. It was now noon-the day pay the Printer! after Christmas-day, and there really was "I don't understand a word of it," said something for dinner. 'The tailor was from Mrs. Aikins; and with a resolute hand, she bles.' home-the children were out, but it was took up her thimble, and turned it over and close upon twelve o'clock, and in a trice they almost unconsciously brought the thumble would be back, eager and hungry for their to her nose. But it did not smell of sulmeal. Mrs Atkins put down her work-a phur-the thimble was the like thimble it very handsome waistenat of sky-blue satin, was before, sprinkled with stars and bordered, it might . For ten years have I lived in this thimsprinkled with stars and bordered, it might be, with the zodian, (the border was so ble. Ten years, cried the fittle man-and strangely beautiful)-clant her thimble on Mrs. Atkins mared now at her visitor, and the mortelpiece, and hurried to the cap- now took another look at the thimble; and tried to exercise them.

the table laid, Mrs. Atkins thought she That is, I suppose, answered the spiritobject enveloped in it, save the small brass unruffled mannikin. "Very true. Yet thimble that glutered like a speek upon the there's a deal of brassy character paid for no, it could not be be; it was impossible - ble ?" nevertheless, the face of the manuskin was " That was my sentence-that was my bomility. 'Know, then, that Solomon has at this yesterday, but before then"and answer it with his groans. And as in petition."

brazen kettles, so,'—and the little man sigh" More ed heavily- so in brass thimbles; so in the wife. 'Talking of waistcoats, what do pens of clerks and merchants and lawyers you think I get for that blue thing there?' and authors—narrow prison-houses for all 'Starvation!' answered the mannikin, of them who cheat the world, and for all in 'for I see, fine as it is—ob, I know the the world who cheat them; and cruelest of sort of thing now-I see it is one of the all, so in the very interstices of the printer's glories of prime cost that defy competition. types a multitude of souls, which no man A pretty breastplate of defiauce,' said the can number, is bound to be pricked by bod-kins, half smothered with the blackest ink, ished." and infernally squeezed at every turn of the 'How punished?' asked Mrs. Atkins.

A THIMBLE-FULL OF ROMANCE. The tailor's wife had stitched since five sterling honesty, and withal, be sure and fuller table for the time to come, Atkins had gone to make inquiry about a Now you are well got rid of, I'll take ship that was to sail for the other side of care you shan't get in again." the world; and though he had not at that The little man seemed to understand the long years'time a single piece of Queen Victoria's threat of the look, for he said, with a lanminted gold to purchase a passage for him-self and family, he nevertheless would learn 'It's no matter, now : my ten years are all the particulars of cost and necessary up-my time's out to-day. All I have now mikin, preparation. It was a whun, he knew; for to do is to confess my past sins and the suffer-

And all alone, Mrs. Askins spread the haunt your brazen thimble." table. There was a piece of beer left, and 'A ghost!' cried Mrs. Atkins. 'Well, I a small piece of plum-pudding; and still never thought I could be so bold to a ghost. the pudding remained small, although Mrs. But then, to be sure, you'te such a very lis-would execute a lew more strickes, filling ed little woman, 'you wasn't his friend at up the time until Atkins and the children all? Only the name, like?"

came. As Mrs. Atkins approached the Listen in my story, said the little genmantel-piece, extending her fingers towards, tieman, again shifting, himself, among the the timoble, the timuble-of its motion- holly leaves. I was, when I was a ive and foil over upon its side, with one distinct, enjoying my proper stature, I was a man of mont. And depend upon it, they who, protonged sound, as from a silver bell; Mrs. exceeding wealth. Rich indeed was I, and without care for the countries, the occessi-Atkin's thimble, by the way, being of no as everyhody thought-and at last I got my. the of the workers, will have only the such previous metal, but of working-day self to think so too-very good, very bener- cheapest work, bug as their names may brass. Mrs. Athins down back her tingers ofent, very pions. Indeed, I had the habit sound, and large as their presence in the from the thunde as from a neitle, when the of talking so much about the dates of the world may be-their souls dwell in a thinchamble-sect-moved-rolled off the monthly right to the poor that, for the life of me, I bile. piece and fell upon the hearth. And then, never could find sufficient time to perform to the astomshment and terror of Mrs. At- them. Nevertheless, I could not lorbear to the Dutch clock struck twelve, and Atkins to a lord the traveller, convincing him that he kins, who, strange to say, could not at that talk—it was so pictosait, so easy too; and there is no longer in the land of burning sands with a brightened face, with a child in eigenfulness that said among my particular friends like in the father, it made me a name that said among my particular friends like in diner. Now whether Mrs. Atkins did, or did not, tell her husband her interview a nice outcoment." med—then, from the thumble began to pour a nice out ment," forth, in small, quick paffs, smoke of silvery clearners. Mrs. Atkins dropt in her Atkins. "To get a good name, and live the business of Ren Rintso Hoon.

The more shame for you," said Mrs.

Atkins. "To get a good name, and live the business of Ren Rintso Hoon." chair, and sat with her eyes upon the thin- upon it and do nothing for it; why it's bie, still puffing a shining a por-pulling worse than coming-yes, passing bad moand puffing, until, in a few innertes, the ney is nothing to it."
room use filled as with a cloud, and every "Very true, Mrs. Atkins," answered the Well, he was the strongest of gentlemen, way apartern loaver-in another I have and be was in the strangest position ! But taken off my own coat, and am serency of twenty-eighth year; but there is reason and mechanics, may require. My journey we will tell every tittle are know about him. fering the garment to a beggar—and the Measured by tailors' measure, the gentle- third--" man's statuse might have been about six ms "I recollect. Good as a picture to look class. A goutherman with a very clean and at n-1 saw it with Tom and the children the better, however, having occurred in his "It is a well timbered land. Through soften, and he looks round with a half smile it not all of our renders:

In the beautiful and the children on his face, and says: "This is comfort!"

In the beautiful and the control of the beautiful and the beautiful long look, his bair an iron gray; with a one Sunday. Then we could get a walk on berly drest in black-very soberly; and bout you." then his white neckerchief was white and "Don't name it, ma'am," said the little Mrs. Atkins thought she resugned in tagles to think of it. And when I rethe miniature man a well-known face; one fleer"- easily,- thank you, but people condemned scription for a Home for the Houseless, or iron press, so that but for the airy forms 'That's it-that's the marrow of my ste with the portraits of all the miserable men | woman, attend to me, for what I have to say | brother then inquired if he could do any- | may confidently arrive at this conclusion | A Good Stony .- The Boston Transcript, who have ever cheated the printer ?"

' Mercy on us !" exclaimed Mrs. Atkins.

' Pray not for mercy,' mournfully said the little mannikin. 'Pray for repentance, for

"I cared not if you, and such as you liv-which Satau in mercy gives them, every ry. That is the why and the wherefore newspaper, every page, would be blazoned that I am here. At this moment—now,

"It is a well watered country.

handing her things at supper in the most country especially, any number of the most devoted manner. From that period come eligible situations may be found, where, at menced the intimacy between them which any time during the year, good water may terminated in this morning's natastrophe, be obtained, for any of the purposes which Poor Pinckney had barely attained his an entoprising community, agriculturalists

Benightened, darkened being! cried the little man in black; 'miserable, forforn person!' he continued, as though from a platconcealed the Corrazzo of the boson. In this, But the grains, roots, fruits, vines of front of the scarf was inserted a breastpin the tropics, all concentrate here, and may be raised with a degree of comparative case, Having descended the staircase firmly a rapidity of growth and an abundance alhe entered the apartment where his brother most incredible. I have stood erect under and a few friends awaited him. He then the branches of a cotton tree in a Goulah shook hands cordially with all present; and on being asked how he slept, answered—trunk, laden with bolls, and supported by "Very well;" and to the further demand forked sticks to prevent their being broken oner, confined for no good he has done, de- philanthropic heart, beat beneath a waist- as to the state of his mind, he said that he down by their own weight, and found, on measuring, that the tree covered a space of One of the party having hereupon sug- ten feet in diameter. On examining the gested that it would be as well to take some- staple, as the ripened boils burst into matuthing before the melancholy ceremony was rity, it was found as good and equal in the gone through, he exclaimed with some emphasis, "decidedly." Breakfast was ac- country. As to coffee, I will only borrow cordingly served, when he are a French the words of the report as a comment on three new laid eggs, which he washed down to the best Java Mocha is raised in Liberia, with three great breakfast cups of tea. In and can be cultivated with great case to any reply to an expression of astonishment on extent.' It is a country where tobacco, that part of persons present, he declared great article of commerce, may be culti-

Dear father, dear father !" flood soun deep to there?"

'Nay, father! My soul is strong?"

'Seest thou the thither shore?" You'll be lovely, lovely!" Is this death, Father !" "It is death, Mary!"

his broad chest against the load, turned the For this reason: There is no conversation narrow lane, and trotted on briskly as so agreeable as that of the man of integrity, though the load was a plaything. Oh how who hears without any intention to betray, PHYSICAL AND MORAL IMPROVEMENT .- Birds of Paradise always By against the A clean, comfortable dwelling, with whole- wind, and heavenly minded souls move asome meals is no small aid to intellectual gainst the current. damp cellar or a garret open to rain and snow, breathing the foul air of a filthy room, and striving without success to appease hunger on scarty or unsavory food, is in danger of about the striving without success to appears bunger on scarty or unsavory food, is in danger of about most five the stripe of the perate selfish recklassness. Improve then brown rivers with orange colored shores, your lot. Multiply comforts, and still more or yellowish Daniels alcepting muong green cultivation of the mind is fitted to forward dies. So says the Albany Dutchman. you in your worldly concerns, and you No man has the right to expect a good ought to use it for this end. Only, beware, fortune, unless he goes to work and

To injure a man's sight, says the Albany His evil genius will follow him, whitherso-Dutchman, there is nothing worse than over he may turn his footsteps. sudden wealth. Let a wood sawer draw a ten thousand dollar prize, and in less than that he had never felt heartier in his life.

Having inquired the time and ascertained that it was ten minutes to eleven, he remains for Ecience to fully develop, but we marked that it would soon be over. His

"What name, sir !" she enquired. black bair lying over her pillow. Her eye or of paying my addresses to you, about two was dark and piercing, and as it met mine she started slightly, but booking up smiled. I spoke to her father, and turning to her, asked her if she knew her condition.

The eye years ego."

"I remember a person of that name," she rejoined, "who paid his addresses to my father's brown mare," passed in silence, then she spoke in that should forget that the cup of cold water me deep, rich, melodious voice:
"Father, I am cold, fie down beside me," while the rich man's alms, heraided abroad own salvation with fear and trembling. "Thank God!" replied the child. Her One of the conductors on the New Ha-shoulders; but their warm hearts gave beauty "Mother," said James, "what is the while a married man, provided his wife be "Why," said the transformed, " to tell an every-day married lady-enjoys at in per- you the truth, I have been all my life strivfection. But he enjoys it unconsciously, lug for a contented mind, and I've finally and speaks without any intention to de-